

It's Never Too Late to Get the Kind of Attention You Need with Alice Aspen March and Dorian Mintzer on Revolutionize Your Retirement: Interviews with Experts

Imagine someone asks you: “What kind of ATTENTION would you like from me?”
What would you answer?

How do you decide what kind of ATTENTION you need?

Who are you afraid to ask for the kind of ATTENTION you need? At home, at work, in your various relationships?

What would change in your life if you got the kind of ATTENTION you need?

And what would change in your life, if you gave others the kind of ATTENTION they need and want?

I wish you a new perspective on ATTENTION: The role it plays in all of our lives 24/7, no matter how old or young we are, where we come from, where we live, how rich or how poor we are, what skin color we are!!!
